Certified Islamic Bank Manager

Certified Islamic Bank Manager

The positive results of outreach and strategies to get close to customers underline the importance of branch management. Islamic banks should pay due care to branch management to ensure the development of their businesses. Managers require a wide range of skills to lead their branches in achieving the objectives and values represented by their respective banks.

This training programme focuses on the necessary theoretical knowledge and leadership skills necessary for planning, budgeting, performance evaluation, marketing and enhancing the work of Islamic banks to achieve their objectives. In addition, this programme aims to instruct branch managers devoted to the unique role of Islamic banks in serving their local community and the national economy as well.

Targeted participants:

- Employees with potentials for leading positions in the branches of Islamic banks
- Heads of Departments, Auditors, Planning, Risk Management, Compliance, Quality Control, and Research and Development Departments
